

POE PARK PLANS APPROVED.

ACTION OF THE PARK BOARD—LI HUNG CHANG'S TRIBUTE TO GENERAL GRANT TO BE MARKED.

At the meeting of the Park Board yesterday, Superintendent Smith, of the menagerie, requested the erection of a phoanery in the menagerie.

The Board decided to approve the plan. Ten thousand dollars will be spent on the park around the old home of the author, and in a short time, it is thought, the contention for the park which has been going on for so long a time will be happily over.

The Board decided to place a bronze tablet alongside of General Grant's tomb in Riverside Drive.

The Chinese Minister, Yang Yu, in May last, planted a tree beside the tomb as a tribute from Li Hung Chang to the dead soldier.

The Board will place a bronze tablet on a piece of polished granite and sink it in the inclined terrace around the monument.

The tablet will have an inscription, in Chinese and English, of the fact that the tree was planted by Li Hung Chang to the memory of General Grant.

MORE TROUBLE FOR MR. WRIGHT.

THE EX-WARDEN OF THE WORKHOUSE NOW OWES AN ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT.

Charles J. Gleason, who from February, 1906, until April last was deputy warden of the Workhouse, obtained from Justice Andrews, in the Supreme Court, yesterday an alternative writ of mandamus, directing Robert J. Wright, Commissioner of Correction, to reinstate him in the office of warden, from which he was removed last May.

Gleason pleaded that he was appointed deputy warden by Mr. Wright, and discharged the duties of the office until April 21 last, when he received a communication from the Commissioner saying that the office of deputy warden would be abolished on May 1, and ordering him to get out by that date. He was compelled by Mr. Wright to surrender his keys on that date, and was forced to leave the Workhouse. The Commissioner, Gleason alleged, has never abolished the office, the statute to that effect being a mere pretense and not being made in good faith. The case will now go before a jury in the Supreme Court.

Justice Andrews granted to Commissioner Wright a stay, pending an appeal, from the order of Justice Smith adjudging him guilty of contempt of court in refusing to reinstate John J. Fallon to the wardenship of the City Prison, compelling him to pay the cost of such imprisonment.
